PRIME MINISTERSPEAK Modi announces defence corridor for UP with ₹20,000 crore investment

Modi addresses UP investors

LAKSHMI The Prime Minister Narendra Modi has been in UP for the last two days to meet the state's top industrialists and investors. The central PM, who has been instrumental in the success of the country's economic transformation, will be in UP for three days to review the progress of the infrastructure development in the state. He will visit Varanasi, Gorakhpur, Lucknow and Allahabad. The prime minister will also meet the state's chief minister, Yogi Adani, and other industrialists.

The prime minister addressed a gathering of investors at the UP Investors' Summit on Wednesday evening. Addressing the gathering, he said, "The UP government is committed to creating a conducive environment for business and investment. We are working towards making UP a hub for manufacturing and technology." The prime minister also announced a package of incentives for investors in the state, including tax breaks and subsidies.

One of the key announcements proposed by the prime minister was the setting up of a new port in Varanasi, which will facilitate better connectivity between the state and the rest of the country.
