

Yogi to address Mum honchos, roll out Film City blueprint on Wed

TNN | Nov 30, 2020, 04.37 AM IST

Lucknow: Chief minister Yogi Adityanath will reach out to industrialists in Mumbai on December 2 to woo investments to UP after his symbolical launch of Lucknow Municipal Corporation (LMC) bond at Bombay Stock Exchange. LMC had issued municipal bonds to raise Rs 200 crore under the Smart City project.

Yogi would meet industrialists, bankers and film personalities at Hotel Trident, where he would discuss investments in UP and roll out a blueprint for the proposed Film City in Noida.

Top government officials said, Yogi is scheduled to meet chairman of Tata Sons, N Chandrashekharan, Niranjan Hiranandani of Hiranandani group; chairman of Larsen & Toubro, SN Subramaniam; CEO of Siemens, Suprakash Chaudhary, besides chairman of FICCI Defence and Aerospace committee, among others.