

Solar power projects create employment in UP

The UP government's Solar Energy Policy 2017 is not only dispelling darkness from every village of the state, but also creating plethora of opportunities for people to earn their living from it

IANS • August 11, 2021, 14:02 IST

Lucknow: The huge investments being made by companies in the solar energy sector have opened up great opportunities for permanent employment in Uttar Pradesh.

The UP government's Solar Energy Policy 2017 is not only dispelling darkness from every village of the state, but also creating plethora of opportunities for people to earn their living from it.

According to the government spokesman, in the last four and a half years, solar power projects of 1,370 MW capacity have been commissioned while projects of another 417 MW capacity are under construction.