

Over 400 MSMEs to participate in 7th India Industrial Fair in Guwahati

Synopsis

President Purvottar prant Manoj Lundia said that Laghu Udyog Bharati will be organizing 7th IIF -udyam 2022 in partnership with Industries & Commerce Department Government of Assam and MSME – DI.

ThinkStock Photos

Over 400 MSME' from across the country and Northeast India will participate in the 7th India Industrial Fair from 22nd to 25th April in Guwahati.

President Purvottar prant Manoj Lundia said that Laghu Udyog Bharati will be organizing 7th IIF -udyam 2022 in partnership with Industries & Commerce Department Government of Assam and MSME – DI.

Chairman of the event Vivek Agarwal said, “we are conducting multi modal platform addressing connectivity to different sectors of the business of North East and India to attract investments especially in manufacturing Sector and market access to the MSME’s of this region. Around 100000 Square feet of Air-conditioned exhibition space is being constructed for participation of around 400 MSME’s stalls from across India majority from North Eastern states will participate. There shall be multi product & various Live machine display in the event to address the need of the industries & to witness the technology”.

Ashish Deorah, National Joint General Secretary informed that Narayan Rane, Union Cabinet Minister of MSME along with Himanta Biswa Sarma Chief Minister of Assam, Chandra Mohan Patowary Minister Industries & Commerce, will attend the opening ceremony on 22nd April.

...more

