Chief Minister Yogi Adityanath on Sunday inaugurated Lulu Group's Lulu Mall-Lucknow at a grand event in the state capital. Built with an investment of Rs 2,000 crore, Lulu Mall Lucknow is located on Amar Shaheed Path in Golf City and opened to the public on Monday.

The chief minister expressed his "utmost happiness at the way the project had shaped up". "It is going to be a landmark destination not just for the people of Uttar Pradesh, but also for international travellers," he added.

The CM also appreciated the company's efforts to boost development of cities like Prayagraj, Varanasi, Gorakhpur and Kanpur and for encouraging export of agricultural products from UP.

The mall is the fifth one to be constructed by Lulu Group in the country, after Kochi, Bengaluru, Thiruvananthapuram, and Thrissur. The inaugural event was also attended by state Assembly Speaker Satish Mahana, Deputy Chief Ministers Keshav Prasad Maurya and Brajesh Pathak, Uttar Pradesh Industrial Development, Export Promotion, NRI and Investment Promotion minister Nand Gopal Gupta 'Nandi', Chief Secretary Durga Shankar Mishra and other senior officials.
