

Better law and order made UP a choice investment destination: CM

TIMES NEWS NETWORK

Lucknow: Giving credit to an improved law and order situation for UP having become “a preferred destination for investment”, chief minister Yogi Adityanath on Saturday said that a ‘dangamukt’ and ‘apradh-mukt’ state (riot free and crime free) had opened up to massive development opportunities.

During a visit to Bijnor and Moradabad to inaugurate various development projects and to review the status of implementation of government schemes, the CM said that instead of riots, the past five years had seen construction of highways and expressways.

CM Yogi Adityanath interacts with kids in Bijnor on Saturday

“The state follows a zero tolerance policy against crime. We will not allow the security of traders and entrepreneurs in UP to be breached,” he said.

► Devpt projects, P 11

Draft plan for UP SCR to be ready within a week

A day after CM Yogi Adityanath directed officials to prepare a plan for developing Lucknow and seven adjoining districts as a UP State Capital Region (SCR), on the lines of Delhi NCR, the government said that work had already started on the proposal and a draft plan would be presented before the CM in a week, reports Neha Lalchandani. Two committees are also being set up to work on this proposal. P 3