Lucknow: In the run up to the UP Global Investor Summit

2023, state's Cabinet minister for industries and infrastructure development, Nand Gopal

Gupta Nandi has sent an invitation to his counterparts across at least 13 different countries.

The list includes UAE, Japan, Germany, Thailand, South Africa, Brazil, Australia, Argentina, Netherlands, France, Belgium, Mexico and Canada.

"We are trying to collaborate at all possible levels to attract investment in the state. The government has invited industry ministers to join us in the event slated to take place on February 10-12," the minister told TOI on Saturday.

Beginning with 'greetings from the land of unlimited possibilities', the letter to trade and industry heads of different countries shared that India was the world's fifth-largest economy and had emerged as one of the most preferred investment destinations in the world.
