

Rajnath Singh discusses key defence projects with his Israeli counterpart, invites industries

It was Rajnath Singh's first conversation with Major General Yoav Gallant after the latter became Israeli defence minister around two months back.

Defence Minister Rajnath Singh (R) and Minister of Defense of Israel Yoav Gallant (L) (Photo: File)

By Manjeet Negi: Defence Minister Rajnath Singh on Friday spoke to his Israeli counterpart, Major General Yoav Gallant, and discussed key projects relating to co-development of military hardware. It was the first conversation between the two ministers and Rajnath Singh congratulated Gallant on his appointment as the Defence Minister of Israel.

Rajnath Singh invited Israeli Industries to deepen their investments in Joint Ventures and identify areas for collaboration, particularly in niche technologies.