

Fulfilment of hopes, expectations of new India: Yogi on Parl bldg

Lucknow: Chief Minister Yogi Adityanath on Sunday described the inauguration of the new Parliament House in New Delhi as a “golden chapter” in the history of Indian democracy.

Yogi, who was present on the occasion when PM Narendra Modi inaugurated the new parliament building, said that the structure was a symbol of the “fulfilment of the hopes” and “expectations” of the new India.

The CM described the sacred Sengol (sceptre) as a symbol of India's justice, fairness, sovereignty and strength. He added that the Sengol was a consolidated expression of respect and faith of all countrymen towards India's cultural heritage and excellent democratic values.

MP Ravi Kishan takes a selfie with CM Yogi Adityanath at the event

► 'Magnificent', P 4