

NTPC Green Energy, UPRVUNL tie up to develop renewable energy parks in Uttar Pradesh

1 min read • Saurav Anand

01 Jun 2023, 03:52 PM IST

The collaboration aims to support the government's energy transition goals and facilitate the development of clean energy infrastructure in the state

As part of the agreement, the companies will collaborate on the establishment of ground-mounted and floating solar projects in various locations (Getty Images/iStockphoto)

New Delhi: NTPC Green Energy Ltd (NGEL), a subsidiary of NTPC Ltd, has entered into a partnership with Uttar Pradesh Rajya Vidyut Utpadan Nigam Limited (UPRVUNL) to develop renewable energy parks in Uttar Pradesh.

Advertisement

mint

Markets Premium Money Mutual Fund Industry Companies Tec

< Back

NTPC Ltd on Thursday..

NGEL and UPRVUNL signed a Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) on 31 May in Lucknow, solidifying their commitment to joint efforts in renewable energy development.

As part of the agreement, the companies will collaborate on the establishment of ground-mounted and floating solar projects in various locations, including the Rihand reservoir and other suitable water bodies and land areas. They also plan to develop renewable energy parks and projects in areas where land is available.