

Gram samaj land can be used for industrial purpose in state

Neha-Lalchandani
@timesgroup.com

Lucknow: To address the issue of land availability for setting up of new industries, the government is set to issue an order, making it possible for three industrial development authorities and Uttar Pradesh State Industrial Development Authority, to acquire gram samaj land free of cost.

The decision was cleared by the state cabinet recently, after which the authorities have started work of identifying land. A senior official in the revenue department confirmed that the government order would be issued shortly.

► Specific area, P 8