

UP best, safest destination for investments, says Yogi

TIMES NEWS NETWORK

Gorakhpur: Chief Minister Yogi Adityanath on Monday said that rule of law is the first requirement for good governance and UP police has established the rule of law in the last six years by ridding the state of crime, riots, and anarchy.

Inaugurating the state-of-the-art and hi-tech administrative building of AIIMS and Gorakhnath police stations, Yogi said: "UP has emerged as the best and the safest investment destination because of the rule of law and the zero-tolerance policy against crime implemented under the leadership of Prime Minister Narendra Modi."

Gorakshanath and AIIMS police stations have co-

CM Yogi Adityanath on the terrace of a new police station inaugurated in front of Gorakhnath Temple in Gorakhpur on Monday me up at the cost of Rs 17.1 crore and Rs 5.4 crore, respectively.

"Anarchy has no place in Uttar Pradesh today. All festivals are celebrated in peace. Bakrid, Ram Navami, and Eid were celebrated without any untoward incident. The rule of law becomes the medium of change in the life of the common man and fosters an environment for investment. The most secure environment has attracted investment proposals worth Rs 36 lakh crore to the state. Once these proposals are implemented, one crore youth will get jobs," he said.

► Cyber stations, P 10