

CM: UP's youth will no longer need to migrate

Gorakhpur: CM Yogi Adityanath on Monday said that the youths from Uttar Pradesh will no longer have to search for jobs in other states and their energy and talent will be utilized in the development of the state so that it could become the leading economy of the country, reports Arjumand Bano.

He was speaking at the inauguration of a Rs 114 crore worth dairy and dairy products project in Gorakhpur. The CM insisted that when the youth are prosperous, society will be happy, and when society is happy, the state will propel towards prosperity.

CM Yogi Adityanath and BJP MP Ravi Kishan at an event in Gorakhpur

► Law and order, P 7