

Massive surge in UP's exports under Yogi

PNS ■ LUCKNOW

In a remarkable economic transformation, Uttar Pradesh has witnessed a massive surge in exports under the leadership of Chief Minister Yogi Adityanath. The state's exports have grown by a staggering 12-fold in a range of sectors, reflecting the government's successful export policies.

From agricultural products to machinery, UP's contribution to the global export market has seen significant growth. The state's exports of vegetables and root crops have increased from Rs 35 crore in 2014-15 to an impressive Rs 434 crore, marking a remarkable 12-fold rise.

The Yogi government's strategic approach has also had a substantial impact on other key sectors. The export of food and beverage products has experienced substantial growth, while there is a surge in the demand for edible oils and non-ferrous minerals, both sourced from Uttar Pradesh and exported to various global markets.

Furthermore, sectors such as sugar, textiles and electrical machinery have displayed an exceptional pace of growth over the past eight years, making Uttar Pradesh an integral contributor to these industries.

The fruit sector has particularly seen a remarkable increase in exports, rising from Rs 13.50 crore to a substantial Rs 147 crore. Grain demand has surged from Rs 2,300 crore to a remarkable Rs 5,000 crore, further enhancing the state's role in the global market.

In addition to this, exports of vegetables, animal fat and oils have seen a remarkable jump from Rs 8 crore to an impressive Rs 300 crore, marking a significant achievement for the state.

The transformation is not confined to these sectors alone, as the silk industry has also witnessed an extraordinary turnaround. The exports from the silk industry surged from Rs 9.11 crore to a substantial Rs 251.65 crore in just eight years.

This extraordinary export growth reflects the robust economic policies implemented by the Yogi Adityanath government, driving Uttar Pradesh's contribution to the nation's export landscape to new heights. With a 12-fold increase in exports, the state's economy is experiencing an unprecedented boom, bringing both prosperity and recognition to Uttar Pradesh on the global stage.
