

From BIMARU, UP is now a revenue-surplus state: Yogi

TIMES NEWS NETWORK

New Delhi/Lucknow: Describing UP's journey from a BIMARU state to a revenue surplus state over the past six years, CM Yogi Adityanath on Thursday said a "new environment for industrialisation has been created in the state".

At the 42nd Indian International Trade Fair in Delhi to inaugurate the UP Pavilion, he visited stalls of hand-made products in the 'One District One Product' Mart which is a highlight at the UP

CM Yogi Adityanath at the UP Pavillion at the India International Trade Fair 2023, in New Delhi

Pavilion, and interacted with artisans.

► Expand UP's export, P3

Cong crossed limits of appeasement: CM

CM Yogi Adityanath hit out at the Congress, accusing it of adopting discriminatory practices while giving compensation. "It crossed all limits of appeasement," he said.

Addressing election rallies in Rajasthan, Yogi also criticized the Congress leaders for remaining absent during crises like floods, heavy rain, or the pandemic. P3