

TCS to set up its new campus of 30k capacity

TIMES NEWS NETWORK

Tata Group chief Natarajan Chandrasekaran said here on Wednesday that Tata Consultancy Services (TCS) will not exit Lucknow but strengthened its facility in the state capital as well across the state. He also announced that TCS will set up a new campus in the state with a 30,000 capacity.

TCS has a large presence, Tata Projects have been significantly present here," he added. He further said Tata Group will not be confined to any particular sector but will help the state grow across all sectors.

"We are keen on participating in the growth of UP across sectors such as manufacturing, IT, infra etc," he said. Last year, TCS had decided to wind up its offices in Lucknow prompting
