

Govt to train unskilled migrantworkers to make them job ready

Pankaj Shah | TNN | Dec 17, 2020, 04:56 IST

A-

A+

TOI

Lucknow: The state government is set to provide training to unskilled workers, who had returned to their native places during coronavirus lockdown, to make them fit for jobs in various sectors.

In a communiqué to skill development department, additional chief secretary (rural development), Manoj Kumar Singh, said the department has mapped 18 lakh workers who are unskilled and require training to be brought into the mainstream.