

NIVESH MITRA PORTAL BAGS AWARD OF EXCELLENCE

LUCKNOW: Nivesh Mitra, the single window portal of Uttar Pradesh government for issuing clearances to industries, has bagged the prestigious award of excellence of the Computer Society of India (CSI). The award has been given under the project category for excellent online interface provided to investors and industrialists for setting up and running their units and enterprises in the state.

Chief minister Yogi Adityanath gave the award to additional chief secretary, chief minister's office, SP Goyal on Friday in a ceremony organised on 18th CSI Special Interest Group eGovernance Awards 2020.

Neena Sharma, secretary, Infrastructure and Industrial development department and chief executive officer of Invest UP, and Avinash Kumar, district magistrate of Hardoi, were the other officials who bagged the award.

Arvind Kumar, additional chief secretary, Infrastructure and industrial development, said 3,27,502 applications had been filed on the single window portal till date since its launch in February 2018.