

Uttar Pradesh will be next economic and business hotspot of India, says state MSME minister Sidharth Nath Singh

By FPJ Web Desk

Sidharth Nath Singh, Minister for MSME, Khadi & Investment Promotion of Government of Uttar Pradesh had an interactive session with industry representatives today at Hotel Trident BKC, Mumbai.

The session was attended by more than 40 industry representatives including Mr. Ashok Goel, Chairman & Managing Director of BLR Logistics, Mr. Ajay Thakur, SME Head of Bombay Stock Exchange, Mr. Vijay Karia, Chairman & Managing Director of Ravin Group, Mr. S C Deshmukh, President of Defense Equipment Manufacturers Association, Mr. Kamal Nathani, Producer & Director of KNC Media, Mr. Ajay Thakur, Head-SME, Bombay Stock Exchange and Mr. Mr. Shekhar Suman, Noted Film Actor & Filmmaker had comprehensive deliberations with the Minister.

Sidharth Nath Singh welcomed all the attendees and recalled the recent visit of Chief Minister Yogi Adityanath to Mumbai held on 02nd December 2020. He said that this visit is to make continuous engagement with the industry representatives and inviting them to invest in the State of Uttar Pradesh.