Chief minister Yogi Adityanath addresses media after the budget 2020-21, in Lucknow

LUCKNOW: The emphasis of his government's fifth budget, said chief minister Yogi Adityanath on Monday, is on overall development and empowerment through self-reliance (atma-nirbharta).

The chief minister said that his vision for an all-encompassing welfare programme is reflected in this year's budget, especially in light of the Covid-19 pandemic and its impact on the economy.
