

With jobs as target, Uttar Pradesh govt to provide training to youth

Image used for representational purpose only

LUCKNOW: The UP government on Wednesday said that it will provide training to youth under the Chief Minister Apprenticeship Promotion Scheme to help them get employment in government, non-government, cooperative, corporation, MSMEs and private industries.

As many as 50,000 youths will be trained under various schemes run by the department of Micro, Small, and Medium Enterprises \(MSMEs\).

In addition, 35,000 youths in the Industrial development department will be given apprenticeship training.

SKILLING FOR FUTURE

➤ 50,000 youths will be trained under various schemes run by MSME department

➤ 35,000 youths in industrial development dept will be given apprenticeship training

➤ 5,000 youths each will be trained in health and family welfare, irrigation, and housing and urban planning depts

➤ 8,000 will be trained in additional energy dept

➤ 4,200 in Panchayati Raj and 4,000 in PWD will be trained

➤ 8,000 will be trained in agriculture, sugarcane, horticulture and food processing and cooperation department and 8,000 in animal husbandry and dairying

➤ 2,000 in secondary and higher edu dept and 1,000 each will be trained in urban development, medical edu and technical edu depts

OTHER DEPTS ARE | Rural engineering (400), tourism (100), vocational and skill (600), transport (800), UP Housing Development Board (160), UP Project Corporation (80)

Likewise, training will be given to 5,000 youths in the health and family welfare department, 1,000 in the urban development department, 5,000 in the irrigation department, 2,000 in the secondary and higher education department, 400 in the rural engineering department, 100 in the tourism department, 1,000 in medical education department, 600 in vocational and skill department, 1,000 in technical education, 4,000 in PWD, 8,000 in additional energy department, 800 in transport department, 8,000 in agriculture, sugarcane, horticulture and food processing and cooperation department, 8,000 in animal husbandry and dairying.

The guidelines in this regard have been issued by UP chief secretary RK Tewari to all the departments. Under the programme, the youth will also get a training allowance of Rs 2,500. To help the skilled youth gain employment, the state government is establishing youth hubs in every district.