

VIDEOS | DECEMBER 07, 2021, 10:22 PM IST

Parliament panel recommends more sops, uniform policy for greater EV adoption

By Parikshit Luthra | Dec 07, 2021, 10:25 PM IST (Updated)

Mini

A parliamentary standing committee on industry has recommended a mid-term course correction and higher financial incentives to aid India's electric vehicle transition.

A parliamentary standing committee on industry has recommended a mid-term course correction and higher financial incentives to aid India's electric vehicle transition. The panel said the financial support and subsidies given by India for EV adoption is minimal compared to other nations.

The panel also recommended bringing electric vehicles under priority sector lending.