

Ahead of Budget 2022, real estate, PSUs, infrastructure sectors in focus

Ravi Singhal, Vice Chairman at GCL Securities says Infrastructure and PSU will be in focus ahead of the Union Budget this year.

1 min read . Updated: 16 Jan 2022, 09:44 AM IST

Edited By Sangeeta Ojha

Market watchers believe that the rising uncertainty from the third wave of the pandemic will force the government to push the fiscal pedal more to support the fragile recovery

Amid the ongoing third wave of the Covid pandemic, the Union Budget 2022 will be crucial in defining the way forward for the Indian economy. Market watchers believe that the rising uncertainty from the third wave of the pandemic will force the government to push the fiscal pedal more to support the fragile recovery. Finance Minister Nirmala Sitharaman will present Budget 2022 on February 1.

So, ahead of the Union Budget 2022 which sectors are in focus? According to analysts, Real estate, public sector, infrastructure are some of the sectors in focus.