

23 hospitality projects to come up in 10 UP districts

TIMES NEWS NETWORK

Lucknow: As many as 23 projects in the hospitality and tourism sector worth nearly Rs 680 crore have been pledged in different cities by investors, an official statement said.

“Launched during the third groundbreaking ceremony, the new proposals indicate that the tourism and hospitality sectors are on the recovery path,” it stated adding that the new projects are coming up in Gorakhpur, Bareilly, Ayodhya, Lucknow, Muzaffarnagar, Agra, Mathura, Meerut, Prayagraj and Varanasi. The investors have shown interest in setting up small hotels and hospitality related establishments in and around tourism attractions.

Key projects in Gorakhpur include Aishpra Solutions Private Limited (Rs 82.6 crore), Continental Developers Private Limited (Rs 36.2 crore) and Saket Kunj Landmark Private Limited (Rs 35 crore) while those in Ayodhya are Hotel Janak Palace (Rs 14.5 crore) and Usharani Developers Private Limited (Rs 16 crore).

Likewise, in Bareilly, Juhi Sons Ramada Encore by Wyndham (Rs 22 crore), Chhabra Associates (Rs 20 crore) and RMS Hotels and Resorts Private Limited (Rs 55 crore) are coming up.

In Lucknow projects such as Hotel Pradeep (Rs 25 crore), Sony Hotel (Rs 10.2 crore) and St Mary Intercontinental Child and Women Welfare Organization (Rs 10 crore) have taken off.