

PM likely to open GIS on Feb 10, Union mins to address sessions

TIMES NEWS NETWORK

Lucknow: The UP Global Investors' Summit-2023 from

February 10 to 12 is likely to be inaugurated by Prime Minister Narendra Modi.

A slew of union ministers are also slated to address sessions spread out over three days, which will also see sessions by various partner countries.

As per the tentative schedule, the PM will inaugurate the programme on February 10. The PM had also inaugurated the first investors' summit that was organised in February 2018. The first day will see sessions manufacturing of white goods, women entrepreneurship, food processing, tourism and the NCR as

CM Yogi will lead domestic roadshows

After visiting 16 countries to seek investments ahead of the Global Investors' Summit in February, the state government will dispatch teams to seven cities within India to meet with potential investors, reports Neha Lalchandani. The first domestic road show will be led by Chief Minister Yogi Adityanath in Mumbai on January 5. The teams for the domestic roadshows will be different from those which went abroad. P5

UP's industrial hub. Union ministers Ashwani Vaishnav, minister for IT and Electronics, Smriti Irani, minister for women and child development, G Krishna Reddy, minister for tourism, Pashupati Kumar Paras, minister for food processing and Raj Kumar Singh, minister for MNRE are likely to participate in the various programmes.

The second day will see a session on UP's Defence Corridor, which will be addressed by defence minister and Lucknow MP Rajnath Singh. Other union ministers invited to participate in the programme include Piyush Goyal, minister for textiles, Sarbananda Sonowal, minister for Ayush, Purushottam Rupala, minister for dairy and animal husbandry, Nitin Gadkari, minister for transport, Mansukh Mandaviya health minister, Jyotiraditya Scindia, civil aviation minister and Dharmendra Pradhan, skill development minister.

► Spl sessions, P5