

Ahead of GIS, UP inks 14 MoUs worth ₹7k crore at Kol roadshow

Lucknow/Kolkata: The fourth domestic roadshow organised by the UP government as a precursor to the February Global Investors' Summit was held in Kolkata on Tuesday where the state government signed 14 MoUs worth Rs 7,000 crore.

The team from UP was led by industrial development minister Nand Gopal Gupta 'Nandi' and comprised labour minister Anil Rajbhar, transport minister Dayasankar Singh, minister of state for IT Ajit Singh Pal, agriculture production commissioner Manoj Singh, principal secretary tourism Mukesh Meshram, UPSIDA CEO Mayur Maheshwari, MSME secretary Pranjal Yadav etc.

UP team led by minister Nand Gopal Gupta 'Nandi' at a meeting of investors in Kolkata

► Largest proposal, P 4

With 104 MoUs, investors prefer Gr Noida most

Over a hundred projects including 40 in construction and 23 in industrial category have been received by the Uttar Pradesh government. The total worth of the memorandums of understanding signed is over Rs 72,000 crore. Officials also informed that 40 of the 104 MoU signatories were builders while 23 belonged to the industrial category. P 4