

Uttar Pradesh: All districts to join main event of Global Investors Summit

Lucknow (Uttar Pradesh) [India], January 29 (ANI): As the preparation for the Global Investors Summit has been geared up, the Uttar Pradesh government has directed all the districts of the state to join the main event of GIS, an official said.

"All the districts will be connected with this main function. Invite local entrepreneurs/investors to the programs of the districts. This will be the first time that investment will be made in all 75 districts of the state simultaneously in one day. The doors of immense possibilities will open for all the districts,' an official statement from the UP Chief Minister's office said.

Lucknow (Uttar Pradesh) [India], January 29 (ANI): As the preparation for the Global Investors Summit has been geared up, the Uttar Pradesh government has directed all the districts of the state to join the main event of GIS, an official said.

"All the districts will be connected with this main function. Invite local entrepreneurs/investors to the programs of the districts. This will be the first time that investment will be made in all 75 districts of the state simultaneously in one day. The doors of immense possibilities will open for all the districts,' an official statement from the UP Chief Minister's office said.

It also stated that UP CM also directed the ministers in charge to be updated about the situation in their district and visit the district at regular intervals.

"This district tour program must be of at least 24 hours duration. Involve public representatives in the meetings to be held during the district tour. Review law and order and government schemes," CM directed.