

GIS roadshows to conclude in Chandigarh on Jan 27

Neha.Lalchandani
@timesgroup.com

Lucknow: The state government has included Chandigarh in the list of cities for domestic roadshows ahead of the Global Investors' Summit-2023, that are scheduled to begin from January 5. A government spokesperson said the Chandigarh leg will be the last programme, scheduled to take place on January 27 where the government hopes to tap into investors from Punjab and Haryana, looking at investment in the sectors of sporting goods, woollen articles, hosiery, agriculture.

 GIS @ 2023

“This will be the last roadshow before the February mega event. The domestic roadshows are slated to start from January 5 where chief minister Yogi Adityanath will lead a team to Mumbai to interact with potential investors. On January 9, a roadshow will be held in Chennai, followed by Delhi on January 13, Kolkata on January 17, Hyderabad on January

Barabanki attracts investment of ₹867 crore, sets up helpdesk to facilitate entrepreneurs

After becoming the first district in the state to organise investors' summit ahead of the Global Investors' Summit-2023, the Barabanki district administration has set up a helpdesk through the industry promotion and entrepreneurship development center and created a WhatsApp group linking investors with officials from various departments to address their concerns and queries. The district had on December 19 signed MoUs of Rs 867 crore during the summit, after which Chief Minister Yogi Adityanath had said that all districts should hold similar events. “The helpdesk will serve as a facilitation cell to contact investors, solve their problems and provide them with all necessary assistance.

18, Ahmedabad on January 20 and Bengaluru on January 23,” the spokesperson said.

In changes made to the previous schedule, Narendra Kashyap, MoS backward welfare, will accompany the team to Chennai. Sugarcane development minister Laxmi Narayan Chaudhary and Kapil Agarwal, MoS Skill will be heading to Delhi while women welfare minister Baby Rani Maurya and Daya Shankar Mishra MoS Ayush will accompany the team to Hyderabad. The ministers' team to Ahmedabad will consist of labour minister Anil Rajbhar, MoS cooperative Jayandra Pratap Singh Rathore, MoS secondary education Gulab Devi and MoS industrial development Jasantwan Saini.

Agriculture minister Surya Pratap Shahi, IT minister Yogendra Upadhyay, MoS horticulture Dinesh Pratap Singh and MoS sports Girish Chandra Yadav will visit Bengaluru. In Chandigarh, the ministerial team will comprise industrial development minister Nand Gopal Gupta, MoS homeguard Dharamveer Prajapati and MoS agriculture Baldev Aulakh.