

GIS quiz for youths on February 4 & 5

TIMES NEWS NETWORK

Lucknow: Aiming to ensure maximum participation of the youth ahead of the Global Investors Summit (GIS), the state government will be organising the quiz competition on February 4-5.

Scheduled to be organised at the Indira Gandhi Pratishthan, the quiz, 'UP GIS 23 Headliner Business Quiz' will give students and working professionals a chance to win prizes of up to Rs 4 lakhs. A state government spokesperson said that the quiz, proposed to be organised under the guidance of Quiz Master Kushan Patel, will be held in three different categories: Business Quiz, India Quiz and India Quiz (School).

'Business Quiz', a section of 'UP GIS 23 Headliner Business Quiz', will mainly focus on questions based on the business world. Likewise, India Quiz and India Quiz (School) to be held on the second day will have questions related to General Knowledge, Current Affairs and Business World.

India Quiz will be organised on February 5, in which there will be a written round in prelims. The team selected in this will be selected for the semi-finals and then for the final round.

The third category, India Quiz (School Level) too will be held on February 5. In this competition, 200 teams will be selected on the basis of an online screening round. This will be followed by the semi-final and final rounds. Finally, eight teams will be selected. A team must have a minimum of two members. This quiz competition will be organized only for school and college students across the country.
