

It's destination Gujarat for UP panel on mission investment

TIMES NEWS NETWORK

Lucknow: A delegation of ministers and senior bureaucrats reached Ahmedabad on Thursday for a three-day interaction with investors ahead of the February 10-12 Global Investors' Summit.

The main roadshow is scheduled to be held on Friday, where the team will hold various Business to Government (B2G) meetings and a conference where it will talk about UP as a preferred destination for investment.

The team consists of urban development minister AK Sharma, PWD minister Jitin Prasada and minister of state Jayendra Pratap Singh Rathore along with officials like additional chief secretary textiles Amit Mohan Prasad, ACS Sports and Youth Welfare Navneet Sehgal, advisors to CM Awanish Kumar Awasthi and Gyanendra Nath Singh, additional CEO YEIDA Ravindra Kumar and UPNEIDA director Anupam Shukla.

On Thursday, the team met a delegation from Torrent Pharma and spoke to them in detail about the merits of the state, the opportunities available in different sectors and the policies of the state government. The meeting was followed by a site visit of the company's plant by the two advisors to the CM. Meanwhile, ACS Sports and Youth Welfare Navneet Sehgal met Jagan Mehta, CEO of TransStadia Group and Amul Group.

"On Friday, the team will meet more than 30 industrialists one-on-one, while many industrialists will participate in the roadshow. The meetings will start at 10am. The main roadshow is in the evening where, other than the ministers and senior officials, Sudhir Mehta, chairperson Torrent Pharma and Rajesh Adani, MD, Adani Group, will speak about their experiences of working in UP," said a government spokesperson.