Lucknow: Inviting the UP diaspora, now settled in Maharashtra, to participate in the Global Investors' Summit-2023 from February 10-12 in Lucknow, chief minister Yogi Adityanath on Wednesday said the residents of the state are now proud of their "UP identity" and flaunt it wherever they go in the country and abroad.

The CM also highlighted the improvement in law and order situation and said that one of his foremost actions after coming to power was to initiate steps for women's safety, a move due to which women voted for the BJP, irrespective of their caste, religion or ideology. "Prior to 2017, women's safety was neglected. The law and order situation and the security of women have improved. People now have faith in the government and administration," Yogi said, addressing a gathering of migrants from UP settled in Mumbai.

"The state government is working hard to develop all sectors and to ensure that benefits of government schemes reach all people without any discrimination," he said.

"Nobody can accuse us of following a pick and choose policy. We go into elections with an ideology but in government, democracy teaches us to implement all schemes without bias," the Chief Minister added.
