The business 20 summit will be organized in Greater Noida in August, for which CII has been made the nodal agency.

Meanwhile, Varanasi, where six events are scheduled to be held, will see activity in April, June and August. The first meeting here will be held in April which will be of the agriculture working group. In June, the youth 20 summit will be held in the city, for which the nodal agency is the ministry of youth affairs and sports.

August will be a busy month for the VIP constituency when four events will be organised, including a two-day meeting of a working group on development. The ministry of external affairs will serve as the nodal ministry. Discussions on joint development and foreign policy will also be held for which MEA will continue to serve as the nodal ministry. The last event will be a meeting of the sustainable finance working group, for which the ministry of finance will serve as the nodal agency.
