

Team to meet 25 industrialists on B2G basis

► Continued from P 1

The team includes ministers Suresh Khanna, Nitin Agarwal, Aseem Arun, and Narendra Kashyap, and senior officials UP Defense Industrial Corridor chief nodal officer RKS Bhadauria, ACS, MSME, Amit Mohan Prasad, UPPCL chairman M Deva-raj, IIDD principal secretary Anil Sagar, excise commissioner Senthil Pandian and CM Yogi Adityanath's advisor KV Raju will have one to one meetings with 25 industrialists on the basis of business to government (B2G).

The CM kicked off domestic roadshows, to be held in nine metropolitan cities, in Mumbai on January 5. Earlier in December, eight delegations of ministers and senior officials visited 21 cities in 16 countries and received investment proposals worth Rs 7.12 lakh crore.

In Chennai, the team will discuss investment potential of the state with MD, Hutson Agro Products, RG Chandramogan; CMD, Pompure Chemicals, M Ponuswamy; group president of Tuffly Ltd TR Kesavan; CEO, Water World, Anil Akbar; and vice chairman of Murugapa Group, MM Murugapa.

This will be followed by B2G meetings with CEO of Tenth Planet Technologies Pvt Ltd Kumran Mani; vice chairman of Trivitron A Ganesan; CMD, Indira Projects, Bhupesh Nagarajan; GM (industrial & logistic services), Colliers, Karthik Rajan; group CMD of Pra-veen, Mohd Fazal; ED Gothman of Cextex Petrochemicals; VC of Savetha University professor Chandram Shivaji; chairman, Farida Group, Fariq Ahmed; MD, Navvin Energy, Nandkumar; director, Microchem Products India, Nitin Shroff; CMD of Thirumaliya Chemicals R Parthasarathy; director, Contact Civil Aid Solutions, N Geetha; Lux TVS CMD TK Balaji; KLM Exports proprietor G Muraleedharan; head of India operations of Manisha Soft Solutions, B Santosh Kumar; and Rajan Vijay Kumar, CEO of Mclean India and Tomo House. Before leaving Chennai, the group of ministers will discuss setting up projects in the state with some entrepreneurs over breakfast on Tuesday.

These include vice chairman and MD of MRF Ltd., Chennai, Arun Mammen, and G Vishwanathan, founder and chancellor of VIT University, Vellore.

On Monday, more than 150 entrepreneurs from Chennai will be present in the roadshow.