

We are companions in crisis, we don't run away: Yogi

TIMES NEWS NETWORK

Mumbai/Lucknow: Chief Minister Yogi Adityanath on Wednesday said that the "New Uttar Pradesh of New India" does not run away from challenges, it faces them.

"During the biggest pandemic of the century, when workers faced the crisis of migration, UP supported everyone. We ensured everyone's safety," the CM said, addressing a gathering of migrants from UP settled in Mumbai.

Highlighting the progress in UP's air connectivity, the CM said, "Before 2017, there was only one flight from Gorakhpur to Delhi while today there are 14 flights. Airports are also being built in Shravasti, Saharanpur, Aligarh, and Azamgarh. The country's first waterway connecting Varanasi to Haldia port has become operational. Now there is also a plan to connect it with Saryu in Prayagraj and Ayodhya."

"In terms of road connectivity, the state has emerged as a role model for other states," he added.

Industrial development minister Nand Gopal Gupta 'Nandi' spoke about the success of the recent foreign tours of the groups of ministers in connection with the Global Investors Summit-2023.

"Under the leadership of the Chief Minister, Uttar Pradesh has become 'Uttam Pradesh' in the last five and a half years and is now moving fast on the path of becoming 'Sarvottam Pradesh'," he said.