

Yogi brings UP roadshow to city

Will meet who's who of industry at the Investors Summit; will make courtesy call on Governor Koshiyari; aims to attract max business to Global Investor Summit in Lucknow next month

SANJAY JOG AND
RASHMI SHARMA / MUMBAI

Uttar Pradesh Chief Minister Yogi Adityanath is in Mumbai with a roadshow to introduce investors to opportunities of favourable business climate in his state that will be showcased at the Global Investor Summit (GIS) in Lucknow from Feb 10-12.

Notably, in December 2022, eight delegations of ministers and senior officials from UP had visited 21 cities in 16 countries and received investment proposals worth Rs7.12 lakh crore. The roadshows in nine Indian cities, beginning with Mumbai, are a continuation of that exercise.

In Mumbai, Mr Adityanath is scheduled to meet the country's leading industrialists and bankers as well as prominent film personalities in the context of the upcoming Film City in Noida.

The list of industrialists includes Reliance Industries Chairman Mukesh Ambani, Tata Sons Chairman N Chandrasekharan, Aditya Birla

“UP is your home. Please come, invest and help the state achieve higher growth. My government is completing six years in office. The law and order situation as well as electricity supply have improved tremendously. There are no riots. Change is happening...”

“We used to hesitate to tell the people that we are from Uttar Pradesh, but now the situation has changed. All this has been made possible with the help of the Centre.”

Group Chairman Kumar Mangalam Birla, Piramal Enterprises Chairman Ajay Piramal, JSW Group MD Sajjan Jindal, Parle Agro Chairman Prakash Chauhan and MD Shawna Chauhan, Torrent Power MD Jindal Mehta and Hiranandani Group CEO Darshan Hiranandani.

Mr Adityanath is the third

“Could anyone have thought of an airport in Azamgarh earlier? We are also building airports in Aigarh, Saharanpur, Chitrakoot, Saravasti. Asia's largest airport is also being built in Uttar Pradesh.”

To immigrants from Uttar Pradesh

Chief Minister after Odisha CM Navin Patnaik and Madhya Pradesh CM Shivraj Singh Chauhan to visit Mumbai and invite investors to their respective states.

Prior to these closed-door meetings, Mr Adityanath will make a courtesy call on Governor Bhagat Singh Koshiyari. He will also meet officials of various banks at Hotel Taj.

At the roadshow from noon to 2pm, representatives of various industry groups will be given information about 'ease of doing business' and 'ease of starting business' in UP.

Later in the evening, he will meet a delegation com-

Z-plus security in place for UP CM

On the first day of his visit to Mumbai, Uttar Pradesh Chief Minister Yogi Adityanath was escorted to Taj Hotel in south Mumbai amid tight police security. The Mumbai police have made elaborate Z-plus security arrangements for his visit. A team of UP police is accompanying him, and the Mumbai police QRT team and NSG commandos have also been deployed. On the route from the airport till the hotel, the traffic police did not allow any vehicular movement on Wednesday.

prising Indian Merchant Chambers President Anant Singhania, Wockhardt Chairperson Habil F Khorkiwala, Dr Tushar Motiwala from Kokilaben Hospital, among others. Other industrialists include Ashok P Hinduja, Sanjeev Mehta, Pankaj Munjal, Anant Goenka and SN Subramaniam.