

In Pics: Key highlights of UP Global Investors Summit 2023

MONEYCONTROL NEWS

FEB 10, 2023 / 02:50 PM IST

The 3-day long Investors Summit will bring together policy makers, corporate leaders, business delegations, academia, think-tanks and political and government leadership from across the globe, to explore business opportunities and forge partnerships.

1/5

Uttar Pradesh has benefitted from the work done on social, physical and digital infra in India, due to which today the society has become socially and financially more inclusive: PM Narendra Modi at UP Global Investors Summit 2023 (Photo: UP Investors Summit twitter)

2/5

To make the UPGIS 2023 a success, the ministers of the UP cabinet did road shows in 21 cities of 16 countries. Ambassadors have contributed in carrying forward the campaign as per your (Prime Minister Shri Narendra Modi ji) vision by giving full cooperation: UP CM Yogi Adityanath (Photo: UP Investors Summit)

3/5

"Under the dedicated & industrious leadership of CM Yogi Adityanath, UP has proved itself. Today UP takes an 'UP'ward direction to development. Now UP stands for Health, Education, Skill, Infrastructure, Investment & Return on investment," said Defence Minister Rajnath Singh. (Photo: UP Investments Summit twitter)

4/5

"Reliance Industries is committed to UP's growth," speaking at UPGIS 2023 in Lucknow, Mukesh Ambani, Chairman, Reliance Industries, reiterated his support towards UP by generating massive employment avenues, with accelerated industrial & social activities. (Photo: UP Investors Summit twitter)

5/5

"Air India has a detailed plan to connect every part of UP to the rest of India and potentially to the important destinations of the world. We are going to build an integrated multimodal air cargo through Air India SATS with our partner Zurich airport in the new Jewar airport," said Natarajan Chandrasekaran, Chairperson of Tata Sons in his address. (Photo: UP Investors Summit twitter)