Tweeting pictures of the cityscape in its new version, lit up and beautified, with the G20 logo displayed prominently across parts of the city, Kant added that he was delighted to see the city and congratulated Chief Minister Yogi Adityanath for the transformation.

"Amazing transformation of Lucknow city! Delighted to see the #G20 road. It is now one of the finest roads, greens on both side and beautifully lit up. Congratulations CM Yogi Adityanath and his dynamic team. Fabulous #G20 branding in the historic city of Lucknow! Radical transformation in terms of infrastructure, greening, lighting and branding. Never seen a city look so good," the official said.
