

Int'l trade expo in city from Feb 23

TIMES NEWS NETWORK

Lucknow: Lucknow will host five-day long international trade fair UPITEX from February 23.

To be held at Indira Gandhi Pratishthan, the expo is being jointly organised by PHD Chamber of Commerce and Industry and the state government.

CM LIKELY TO INAUGURATE

Claimed to be one of the largest in Northern India, both in terms of exhibitors and visitor participation, the event is set to witness participation by over 300 domestic and overseas exhibitors from multi sectors to enhance the trade and commerce of the state.

“CM Yogi Adityanath is likely to inaugurate the expo that will provide an excellent platform for showcasing the achievements and strengths of Uttar Pradesh over the past six years,” an official statement said.
