by Naxalism, is now turning towards development. Of the investment proposals received for the area, the most have come under the Uttar Pradesh State Industrial Development Authority. Chandauli was once a part of Varanasi. Due to the policies of previous governments and the impact of Naxalism, this area was deprived of industrial development. Despite its resources, Chandauli had no industries," a government spokesperson said.

He added that the current state government not only provided basic facilities to people but also worked on inviting investments in the area by addressing the law and order problem.

Joint Director, Industries, Umesh Singh said that investment proposals of Rs 11,573.22 crore were received in 13 sectors. Around 176 investors have expressed interest in investing in the district. So far, MoUs worth Rs 10,617 crore have been signed with 160 investors.
