'New Noida' Masterplan Nears Completion, Set To Drive Long-Term Industrial Growth In The Region

by Ankit Saxena - Friday, July 7, 2023 03:51 PM IST

Noida plans to expand due to increasing demand for industrial, commercial and housing land.

Snapshot

- New Noida will be established in the Dadri-Sikandrabad area — which is considered a crucial industrial hub of the state.
- The masterplan plan is intended to promote long-term infrastructure and socio-economic growth in the region.
- The region will include special economic zones for industrial units from the agriculture, food processing and FMCG sectors.

The masterplan for New Noida is in the final stage and is likely to be submitted for approval next month, reports Money Control.
