

India's growth path passes via UP: CM

TIMES NEWS NETWORK

Manoj Chhabra

Lucknow: CM Yogi Adityanath said that the path of development for India, as per the vision of PM Narendra Modi, passes through Uttar Pradesh.

“We should feel proud that we are the residents of UP and are making all efforts to establish India as a global power,” the CM said in his address on the occasion of the 77th Independence Day. “India has emerged as the fifth largest economy in the world and the PM has set the goal of making it the third-largest economy by 2027,” he said.

CM Yogi Adityanath during the Independence Day celebration in Lucknow on Tuesday

► Better law and order, P3