

Y20 Summit begins in Kashi; delegates visit Sarnath, BHU

CM Yogi Will Formally Open The Meet Today

Binay Singh | TNN

Varanasi: The four-day Y20 Summit, being held as part of G20 meet, began in Varanasi on Thursday. Around 500 delegates from G20 countries, guest countries and international organisations will attend the Y20 Summit.

On the inaugural day, faculty of the IIT-BHU showcased how the Super Computing Centre has advanced the country's research and development area of science and technology.

A cultural programme was presented by the students of IIT-BHU. In the evening, delegates visited Sarnath. The day concluded with a Light & Sound show on the life of Gautam Buddha.

The ministry of youth affairs & sports is organising Youth20 Summit from August 17-20 in Varanasi. The Y20 Summit is bringing together leading experts, decision makers, national and international delegates/representatives from G20 countries, guest countries and international organisations to negotiate, finalise and sign the Y20 Communiqué created from the conclusions of deliberations and discussions over the past few months.

The formal inauguration of the summit will take place at Rudraksh International Convention Centre in the presence of Chief Minister Yogi Adityanath and Union minister of youth affairs and sports Anurag Thakur on Friday.

Sanjay Gupta

Y20 delegates at the Rudraksh International Cooperation and Convention Centre in Varanasi on Thursday