Lucknow: Chief Minister Yogi Adityanath attended the final race of the MotoGP at the Buddh International Circuit in Greater Noida on Sunday and also presented the competition's trophy to the winner, Marco Bezzecchi.

Union sports and youth affairs minister Anurag Thakur and Union minister for petroleum and natural gas Hardeep Singh Puri also watched the race finale with the CM. This is the first time that the MotoGP was held in India.

A government spokesperson said that the CM watched the race from the balcony of the VIP lounge on the second floor of the Buddh International Circuit. "After the race ended, the CM and Anurag Thakur presented trophies to the top three riders. The

Before he attended the race, the CM held a meeting with the Haryana Textile Association and a delegation of farmers at the Gautam Buddha University guest house and heard their problems. He assured them that any issue pertaining to them that comes before the government will be resolved on priority.

"The CM assured them that his government is always available for farmers and entrepreneurs and that they will not face any trouble. After this, Yogi also discussed the city's administration with district officials and gave necessary instructions," the official said.
