

Uttar Pradesh: Work On Ayodhya International Airport Nears Completion, To Offer Connectivity With Delhi And Other Major Cities

---

The first phase of operations is scheduled to begin in November and will connect Ayodhya with Delhi, Mumbai, Bengaluru and Hyderabad. (Twitter)

Snapshot

- According to the AAI, over 78 per cent of the terminal building construction has been completed.
- The international airport, being developed in multiple phases, will span an overall area of 660 acres of land.

---

Ayodhya's upcoming Maryada Purushottam Shriram International Airport will have direct connections to the national capital and three other major cities in the country.

The airport director, Vinod Kumar, stated that the first phase of operations is scheduled to begin in November and will connect Ayodhya with Delhi, Mumbai, Bengaluru and Hyderabad.