

Commercial operations at Ayodhya airport to start from January 6

TIMES NEWS NETWORK

PTI

New Delhi: IndiGo will be the first airline to operate flights at the soon-to-open Maryada Purushottam Shri Ram International airport in Ayodhya. The budget carrier will start direct flights between Ayodhya and Delhi from January 6; and Ayodhya and Ahmedabad five days later. Other airlines are also going to have flights to the holy city that is all set to become a major magnet for visitors with the grand Shri Ram Janmabhoomi temple getting inaugurated on January 22.

“IndiGo will have the hon-

International airport under construction in Ayodhya

our of being the first carrier to operate from the soon-to-be-inaugurated Maryada Purushottam Shri Ram International Airport in Ayodhya. The inaugural flight from Delhi will arrive in Ayodhya on December 30, 2023. Subsequently, commercial operations for a direct flight will commence between Delhi and Ayodhya from January 6, 2024, followed by tri-weekly flights between Ahmedabad and Ayodhya from January 11, 2024,” IndiGo said.

► Aviation map, P5