

Yogi: UP can be most preferred state for semiconductor units

TIMES NEWS NETWORK

Lucknow: Emphasising that Uttar Pradesh can be the most favorable state for semiconductor manufacturing units, Chief Minister Yogi Adityanath on Wednesday instructed officials to formulate a comprehensive policy for the state.

The CM said that to attract investment in the semiconductor sector, the Centre has decided to provide an incentive outlay of $10 billion dollars. "We have also received encouraging proposals in this sector during the Global Investors Summit 2023. We should take advantage of these opportunities," he added.
