

Bundelkhand set to get ₹60Kcr push

TIMES NEWS NETWORK

Lucknow: UP's Bundelkhand is poised to script a new destiny with investment projects worth Rs 60,000 crore set for launch during the Ground Breaking Ceremony, an official spokesperson said.

“Spanning all seven districts of Bundelkhand, this transformative investment endeavour is poised to catalyze unparalleled economic growth, obviating the need for youth to seek employment opportunities elsewhere,” the spokesperson said.

Officials said Jhansi, a key district of Bundelkhand, is slated to get investment of Rs 23,739 crore, anchoring the region's economic resurgence. Likewise, Lalitpur will witness the commencement of projects worth over Rs 15,707 crore by PM Narendra Modi and CM Yogi, Adityanath accentuating the district's pivotal role in Bundelkhand's revitalization efforts.
