

PM to inaugurate T3 of Amausi airport tomorrow

TIMES NEWS NETWORK

Lucknow: Prime Minister Narendra Modi will virtually inaugurate the newly constructed terminal three (T3) of Lucknow airport, from Azamgarh on Sunday.

Spread across 1.5 lakh sqm area with first phase terminal building construction on 1.17 lakh sqm, T3 is expected to handle domestic as well as international flights. Terminal one will be demolished, and in the second phase, another building will be constructed in 33,529 sqm area for cargo operations.

The new terminal has been built at the cost of Rs 1,628

The new terminal has been built at the cost of Rs 1,628 crore crore and it will handle around 4,000 passengers in peak hour. The annual passenger handling capacity will be around 10 million. The two-level building of the terminal will have separate departures on the first floor and arrivals on the ground floor.