

Lucknow to host 'largest' agri trade fair in Nov

TIMES NEWS NETWORK

Lucknow: Confederation of Indian Industry (CII) on Tuesday announced to hold the 16th annual edition of Agrotech India Agri Trade fair, rebranded as Krishi Bharat, in Lucknow between Nov 15 and 18.

Billed as one of the largest agricultural sector conclaves, the event will strive to improve the agriculture ecosystem through technology.

The organisers said they want to reach a wider audience this time and hence have joined hands with the state govt for support. The last version of the trade fair was held in Chandigarh. The four-day conclave would be held over an area of 20,000 sq mt and have more than 250 exhibitors.

► Best agri practices, P13