

BUSINESS NATIONAL

Strategic Meeting In Lucknow Advances UPITS Promotion And India Expo Mart Expansion Plans

Ten News Network

Last updated May 24, 2024

Share

Lucknow, May 24, 2024: A significant meeting took place today in Lucknow between Rakesh Kumar, Chairman of Expo Mart, and Manoj Kumar Singh, IAS, the Industrial Development Commissioner of Uttar Pradesh and Chairman of Noida, Greater Noida, and Yamuna Industrial Development Authority. The meeting focused on key issues related to the promotion of UPITS, export promotion, and the expansion of Expo Mart.

The India Exposition Mart Limited (IEML) is currently undergoing major expansion plans. The upcoming Jewar Airport is expected to be a game-changer for the development of infrastructure and industrial promotion in Gautam Buddha Nagar, Agra, and Western Uttar Pradesh.

The meeting was also attended by Sudhir Tyagi, former Chairman of the Export Promotion Council for Handicrafts (EPCH) and current Director of IEML.

Dear Readers and Viewers, Ten News Team daily publishing / curating latest and top ten news, from ten news categories. So please keep visiting TenNews.in : National News Portal thrice a day and subscribe it by submitting e mail at home page.

Also keep watching Ten News India YouTube Channel and subscribe it to watch Delhi / National News Videos.